

A National Movement

300 million
Americans

over

7,600

Trade Associations

and 28 million

American business voices are represented on the Federal level by

535 Members of Congress

100

United States
Senators

435

United States
House of Representatives

Over the last decade, nearly 50,000 bills
have been introduced on the House and Senate floor.

Of them,
6,005 bills
faced some type of legislative action.

This means, 95% of the ideas turned into legislation over the last decade failed to become law.

When it comes to the Executive branch, it is estimated that

500-700 Significant Regulations
are implemented each year.

Further, a new administration brings with it approximately 3,000 presidential appointments

at least 600 of which require Senate approval.

On the Judicial level, the Supreme Court receives a caseload of

over 10,000
cases each term.

Of those, plenary review is granted to about

100 cases

with a formal opinion granted in about 80, or

> .5%

A movement is essential to breaking through and defying the statistical odds and ensuring action is taken on your issue.
