

A State and Local Movement

America is comprised of # 300 million

people, each with their unique voice and perspective.

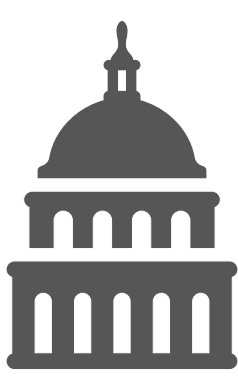

Spread over 50 states and

3.5 million square miles,

their voices are carried through state Senators and Representatives in

99

Legislative Chambers

There are 7,382 legislators, who debate and pass legislation.

The 50 states are comprised of more than

3,000 counties

and over

36,000 municipalities

Over 19,500 city governments

 and

19,492

Each city government has approximately 6 members equaling

116,952 elected officials

To add to that, there are

13,051 school districts

averaging 5 members each.

This means,

65,255 school board members

Throw in the judges, county executives, and “dog catchers” and the Census Bureau estimates there are over

500,000 elected officials

 at all levels of government.

From New York City and its

8.2 million people

to Lost Springs, WY,

population 4

No place is too large or too small to create a movement.
